HUTCHINSON HIGH SCHOOL

high school . . .

What do you see when you think of a high school?
What is the picture you see in your mind?
High school's a mixture of abstract and concrete;
A study in contrasts and things of a kind,
High school's a treasure of people and friendship;
An old brick tradition, a mem'ry in stone.
Remember the parties, the sweethearts, the last songs,
And Main Street a mirror of black in the rain.
Remember the teachers, the classrooms, the homework,
The themes and the cramming for final exams.
Remember the first time you saw your team winning,
The mud and the glory, the cheers and the faces,
The friends all around you, the cold autumn air.
Remember the hot rods, the cokes at the drugstore,
The snow in white mountains on fences and lawns.
Remember the old auditorium's silence
In after-school hours, so sombre and still,
With dark rows of seats like a troop of grim soldiers,
With mem'ries like dust half a century deep.
Look closely, remember, for this is your high school;
This is a picture of all that it means.

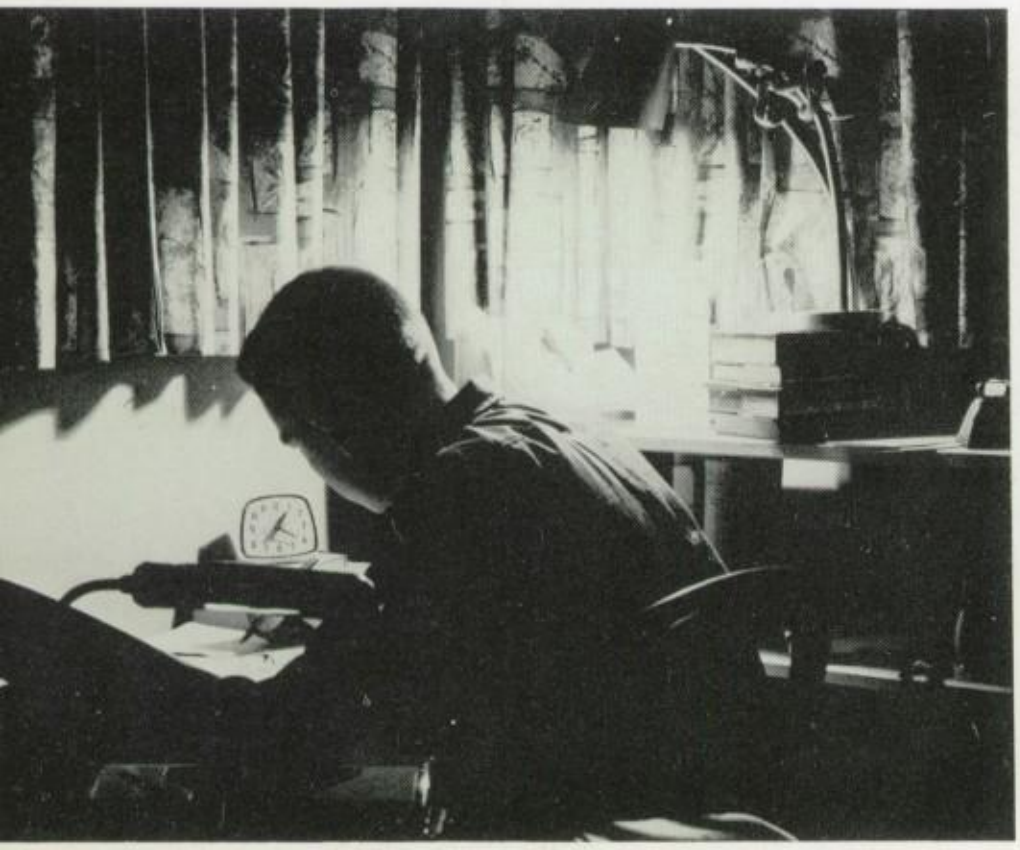
the work . . .



WHAT? A BOY STUDYING?—During the week of finals in January and in May, students study until the "wee small hours" of the morning.

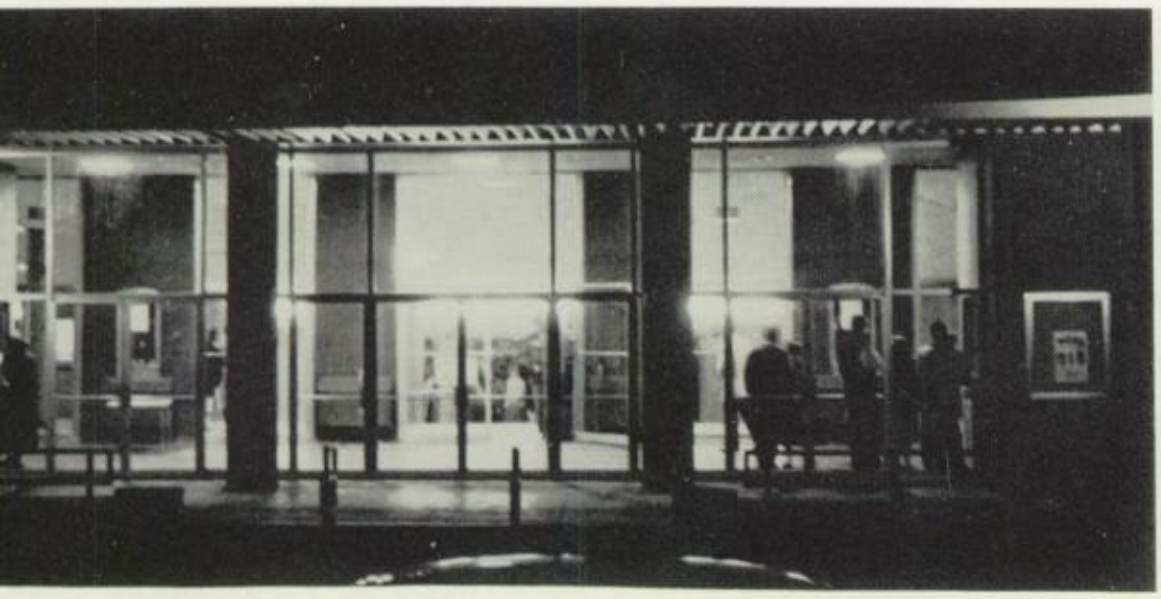
TROPHIES — the reward of study.

SCHOOL'S OUT, BUT ONLY FOR A FIRE DRILL! Students' study was interrupted for a fire drill in December after school administrators throughout the country became fire conscious following the Dec. 1 fire at the Lady of the Angel parochial school, Chicago, Ill., in which 92 children burned to death.

A SADISTIC SMILE illuminates the face of Mike Cunningham as his biology partners, Mary Duarte and Jerry Kirkpatrick, "break down" after dissecting a crayfish.

TALKING THE SITUATION OVER with insurance agents Everett Hayes and Frank Fee, Jr., are Keith L. Christner and Captain Carl M. Barnes of the Hutchinson Fire Department.

and play . . .



WAITING IN LINE at the Record Hop at Convention Hall are Hutchinson High students, preparing to have a ball!

"IT DIDN'T FALL DOWN, HONEST!" says one disappointed youngster to Coach "Irish" Ireland who judges a hula hoop contest at Duckwalls.

"LITTLE GIRLS MUST PLAY" and Susan Sawyer is no exception. Or did she really want a drink?

IT'S A STRIKE, as Judy Anderson lets a bowling ball fly at the Al-Char Bowling Alley.

TROPHIES – the athletes' reward.

DON'T LOOK NOW, BUT—Pat Ross studies obliviously, but Freddy Stanfield has mischief in mind!

of typical teens . . .

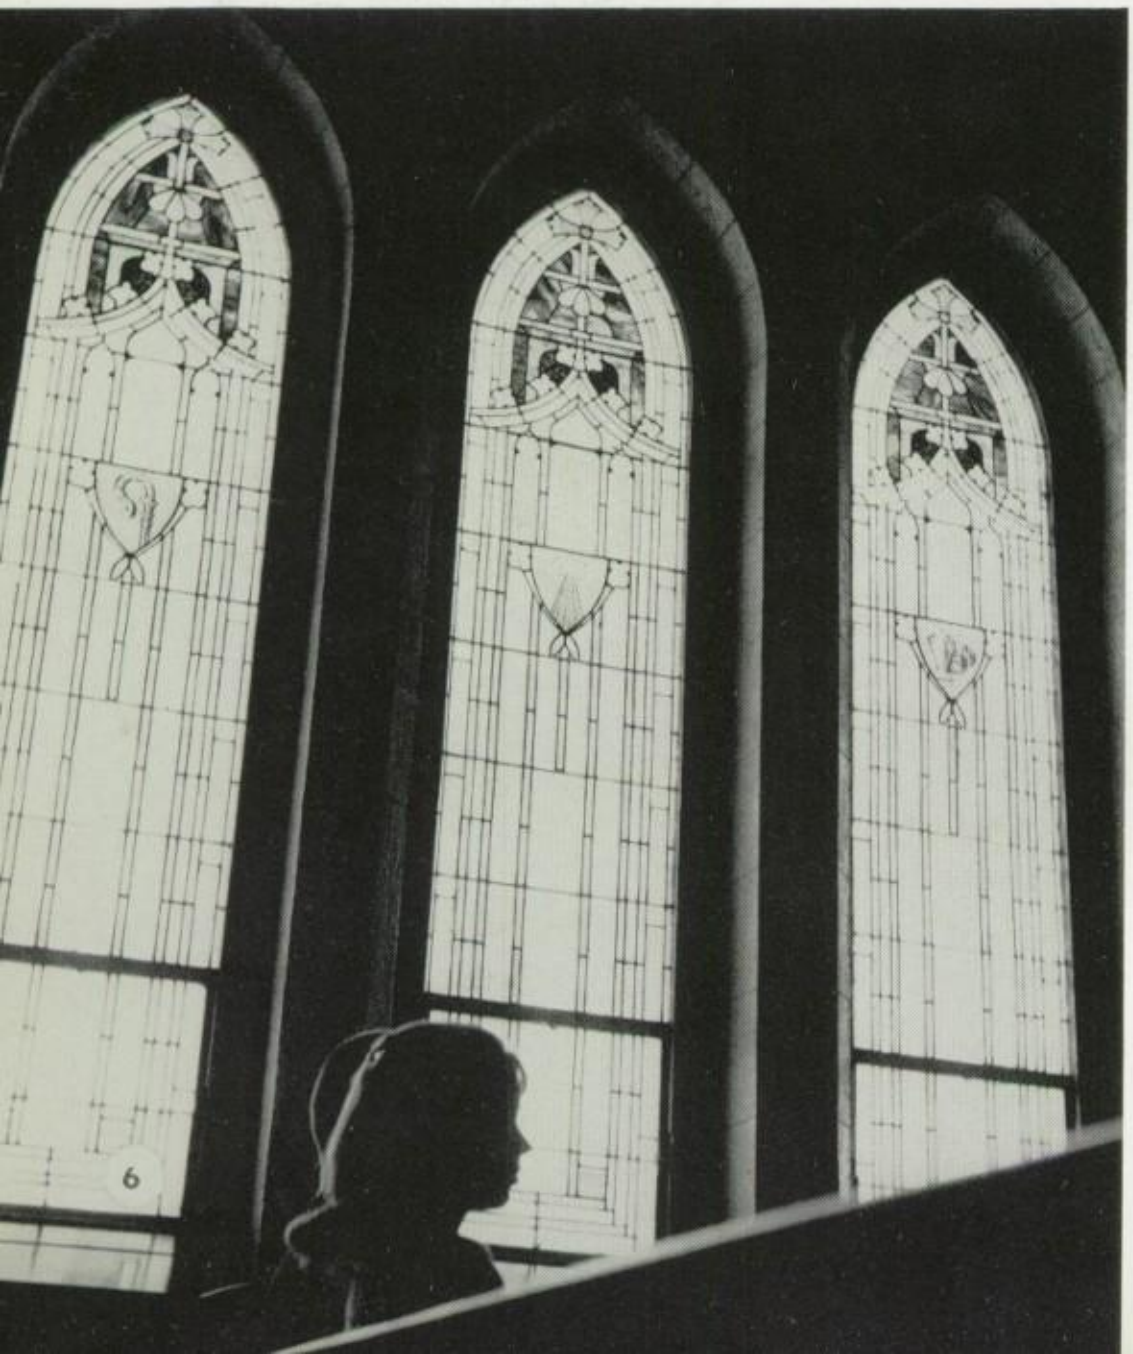
WHAT A BALL! Nancy Baker, Marcene Greenert, Marcie Spaniol, Judi Cummings, Birdella Black, and Sue Marteney live it up in a snake dance at a bonfire pep rally.



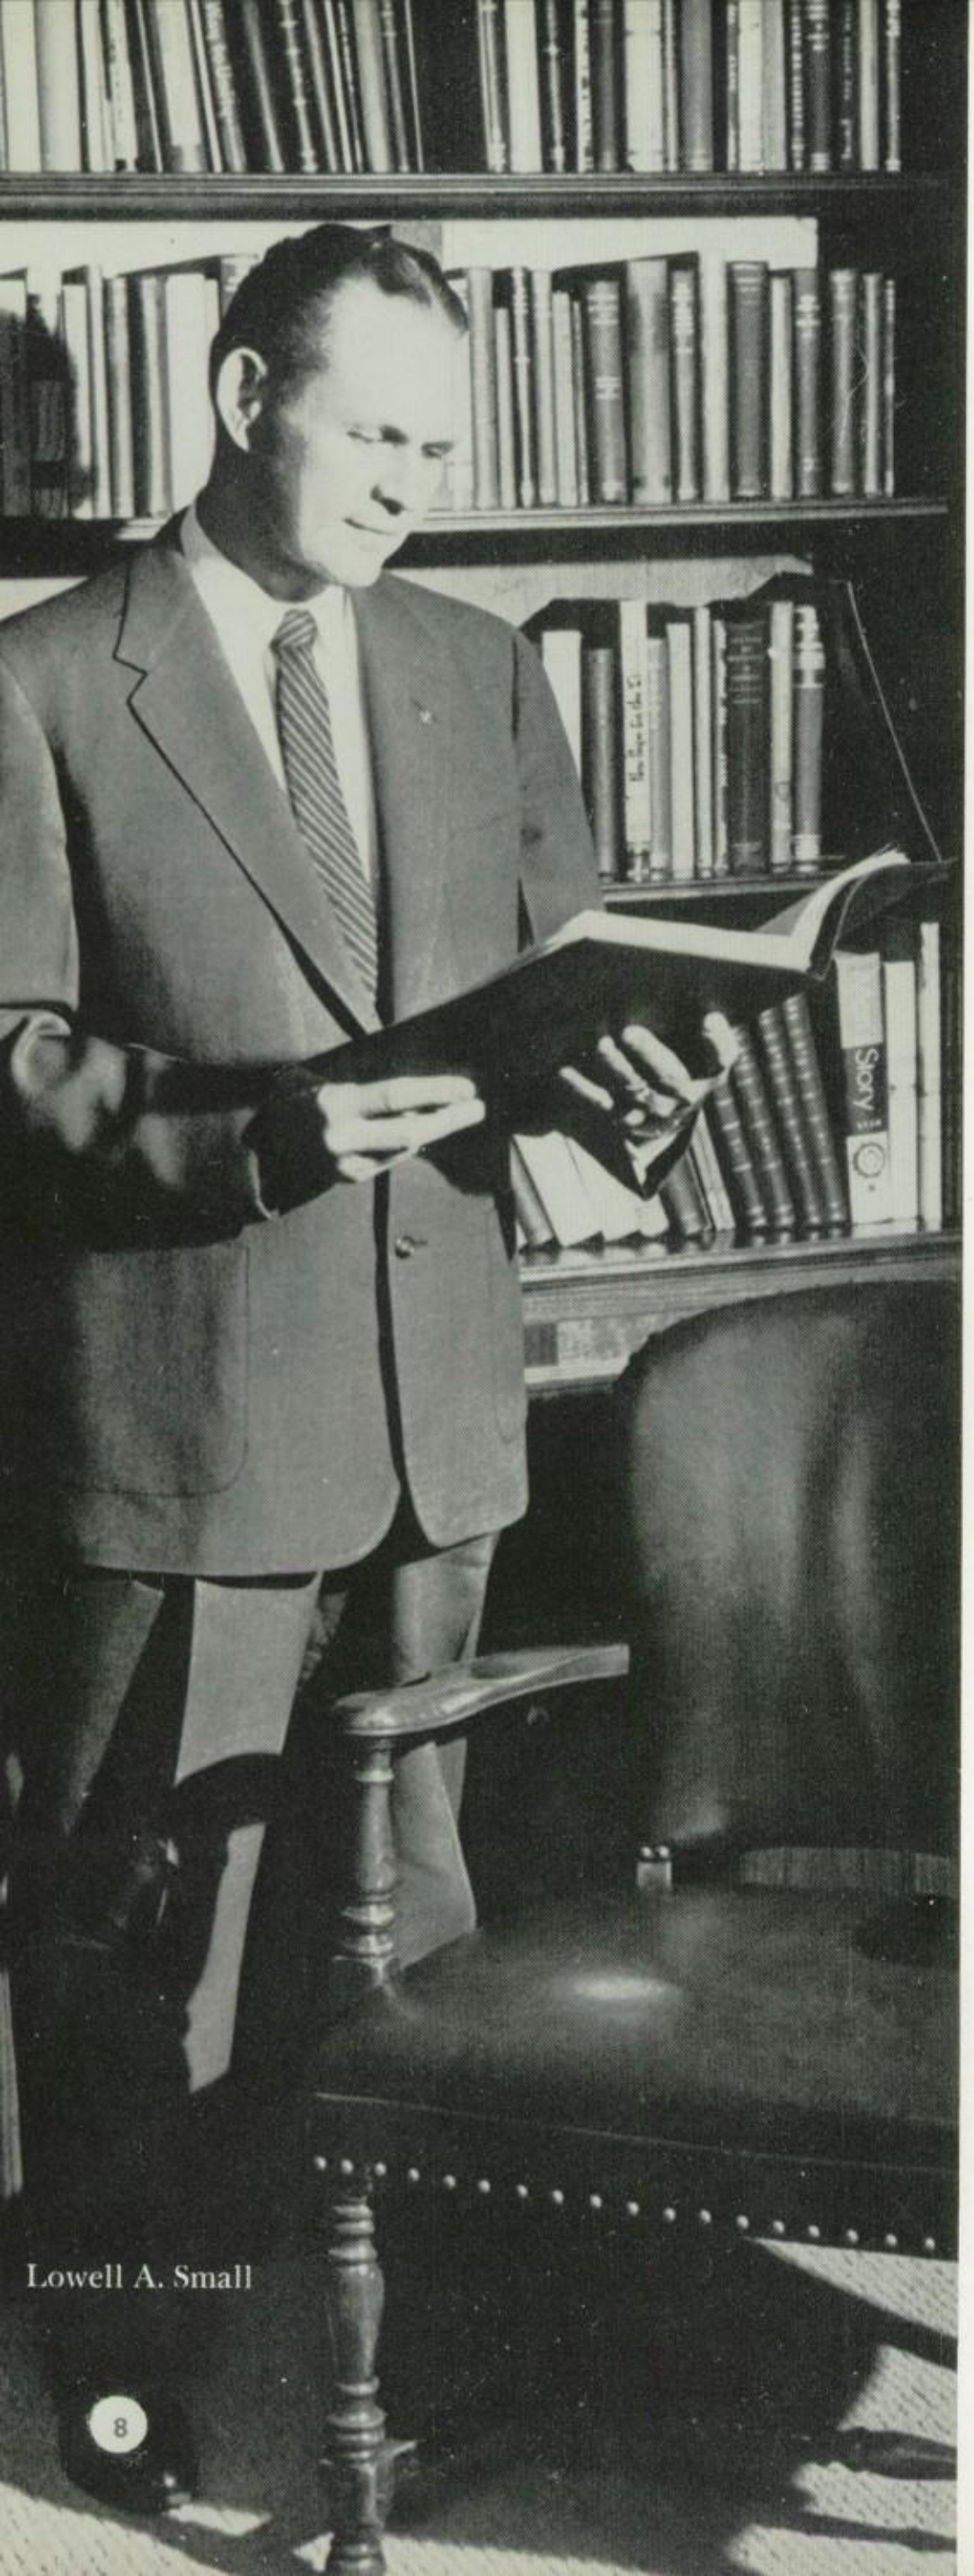
IN CHURCH typical teenagers find beauty, peace, and spiritual satisfaction.

SILENCE PREVAILS at the Hutchinson Public Library as students spend a quiet evening in thoughtful study.

its students

This Allagaroo of 1959 is dedicated to the students of Hutchinson High School. It is the biography of a high school for the winter of 1958 and the spring of 1959, and you have been a part of that high school.

It is written primarily for you and about you. The faults and virtues of you and your classmates have combined to form the single human personality which is the picture others see when they think of Hutchinson High School. This staff is proud to have been a part of the student body of 1959.



Lowell A. Small

City Schools

"For months now, I've lived day and night with the plans for the new high school," laughed Mr. Lowell A. Small, superintendent of Hutchinson's public school system. The plans have also been a main concern of the six-member school board: President Harry Faris, Vice-President Harry Coberly, W. W. Ferguson, James Rexroad, Charles Colladay, and Mrs. J. Richards Hunter. The building costs of Plaza Junior High School, opened in 1956, totaled around one million dollars. Plans call for the building to be tripled in size and converted to a high school plant representing an investment of approximately $3,-200,000, in 1960. The present high school will become a junior high.

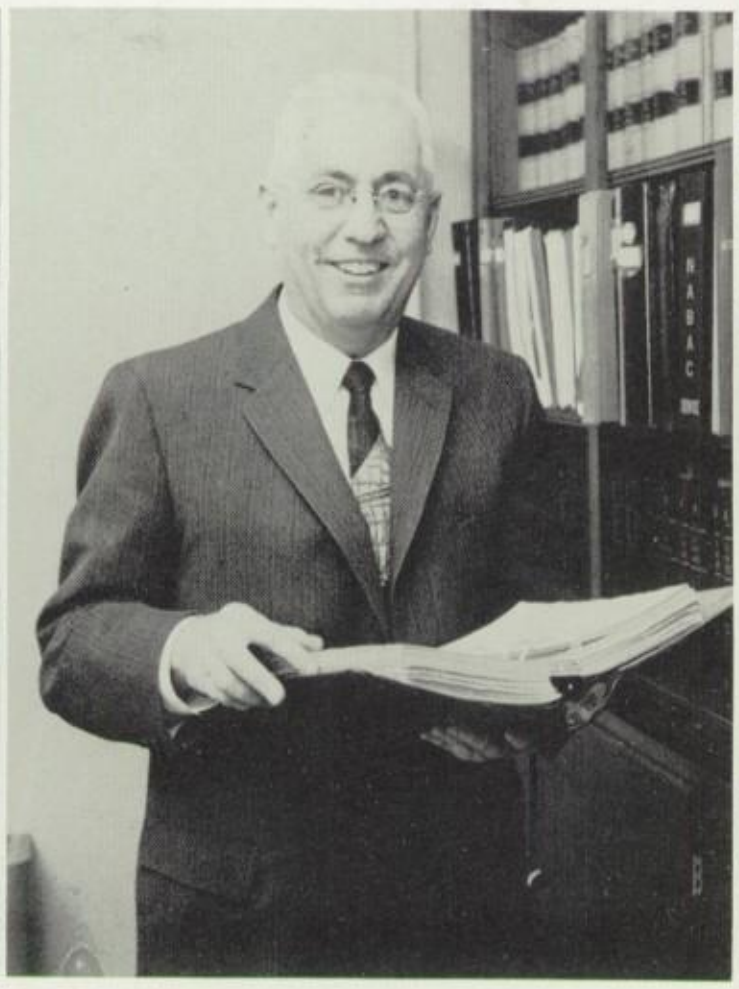
Mr. Small has been the top Hutchinson school administrator for eight years, and is a past president of the Kansas State Teachers' Association. He has a Master of Arts degree in administration from Colorado University and holds an honorary degree of Doctor of Literature. A member of the Kappa Delta Phi national honorary fraternity, he holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Kansas Wesleyan University at Salina, Kansas. His post-graduate work was taken at the Universities of Oregon State and Missouri. Mr. Small likes to spend his spare time at home with his wife and their three sons.

Since the Russian "Sputnik" was launched, the trend in the field of education has been toward an emphasis of accelerated courses, particularly in math and science. There has been a tendency, as a result, to "push ahead" the good students, relegating the slower students to a back-seat. Mr. Small believes a solution for this problem in education "is to adapt the educational program to each person, considering his personal needs and abilities. There should be a definite challenge to the good students, while no opportunities are denied the less capable individuals."

Senior high expansion plans, additions to Winans and Grandview elementary schools, and a replacement of Central evidence the board's awareness of the increasing school population. The seven-member team formulates policies of progress for the city's school system.

Progress with Directors at Helm

CHARLES COLLADAY, elected to the board in 1951, is in his office Monday through Friday. Mr. Colladay is president of the Frank Colladay Hardware Company.



HARRY FARIS, president of the Board of Education, has served as a member of the board for ten years. Mr. Faris is a certified public accountant, and the senior partner in the firm of Pierce-Faris and Co.

HARRY COBERLY, vice-president of the school board, is president of Coberly Drugs, Inc. He was elected to the board in 1957.

JAMES REXROAD, former Reno county probate judge, is a partner in the law firm of Ramsey, Rexroad, and Roberts. He has been a member of the school board for three years.

MRS. J. RICHARDS HUNTER is a homemaker and former school-teacher. She has served on the Hutchinson Board of Education since 1952.

W. W. FERGUSON, elected to the school board in 1954, is director of the personal property department of McNaghten Investment Company.

The first good freeze,
And the frosted mirror surface of the pond
Reflects the silver lamplight
And the big black night.
You can see, just beside,
Where the other couples glide,
With the click and the cut
Of the blades on the ice,
For the moment devoid of all care;
Laughing, turning, whirling, and enjoying
The last year.

Vote Alan Sorem Young American

Alan Sorem, chosen 31st Young American, received the traditional silver loving cup and $100 cash award in the annual awards assembly.

The Young American award is presented by A. Lewis Oswald, class of 1917, and William L. Mitchell, class of 1942. The recipient of the award, which has been presented since 1929, is selected by a representative group of faculty, students, and alumni.

This honor represents a culmination of many honors for Alan. He has won a National Presbyterian Scholarship and was a finalist in both the National Merit Scholarship Contest and Summerfield Scholarship competition. As befits a "young American," Alan has been in many high school activities. He was president of the junior class, has served two years as Hi-Y treasurer, and was president of the Spanish National Honor Society his senior year. Alan was elected Junior Rotarian and was a Boys State delegate.

Two major fields of interest for Alan were music and dramatics. He sang with the Chorale for three years and appeared in numerous musical and dramatic productions, including the senior play.

Two Win Davis Foundation Awards

Don Worster

The Davis Foundation awards, begun three years ago, are given to a graduating senior boy and girl. The $500 per year scholarships may be used at any college in Kansas or Missouri.

Don Worster, one of the 1959 winners, has been extremely active in speech and debate activities. He has attended the District Speech Festival, the AVL Speech Festival, and the State Speech Festival in each of his three years in high school.

Don is a member of Hi-Y, Perrill Club, and the National Forensic League. He is serving his second year as president of the Chess Club. Don was a finalist in Summerfield Scholarship competition at the University of Kansas.

A Davis Award of $500 for four years was also won by Sandra Gustafson.

Sandra has been active in clubs and in music during her three years in high school. A top student, she was a finalist in the Elizabeth M. Watkins scholarship contest at the University of Kansas.

She was local president and state vice-president of the Future Teachers of America. Sandra has played in both the concert band and the orchestra, and attended District Music Festival two years.

During her senior year she was a member of Valence Club, Briny Birds, Kayettes, GAA, Co-ed Counselors, and FTA.

UNDERCLASS

Underclassmen; ah, how sweet
To hear the roar of little feet—
How grand to see, to know at last,
Our school's so amply underclassed.
And what are underclass? you ask,
Ans'ring this is no great task.
Seniors fondly dub them "squares."
Watch them falling down the stairs,
Dashing madly through the halls,
Tic-tac-toeing on the walls.
Seniors, knowing deep within,
Seniors saying with a grin,
"Wait'll next year! You'll agree
There's a difference, when you see
Those ancient, aging former squares;
They'll be falling down the stairs,
Dashing madly through the halls,
Tic-tac-toeing on the walls,
But though they raise the roof again,
They'll do it more maturely then!"

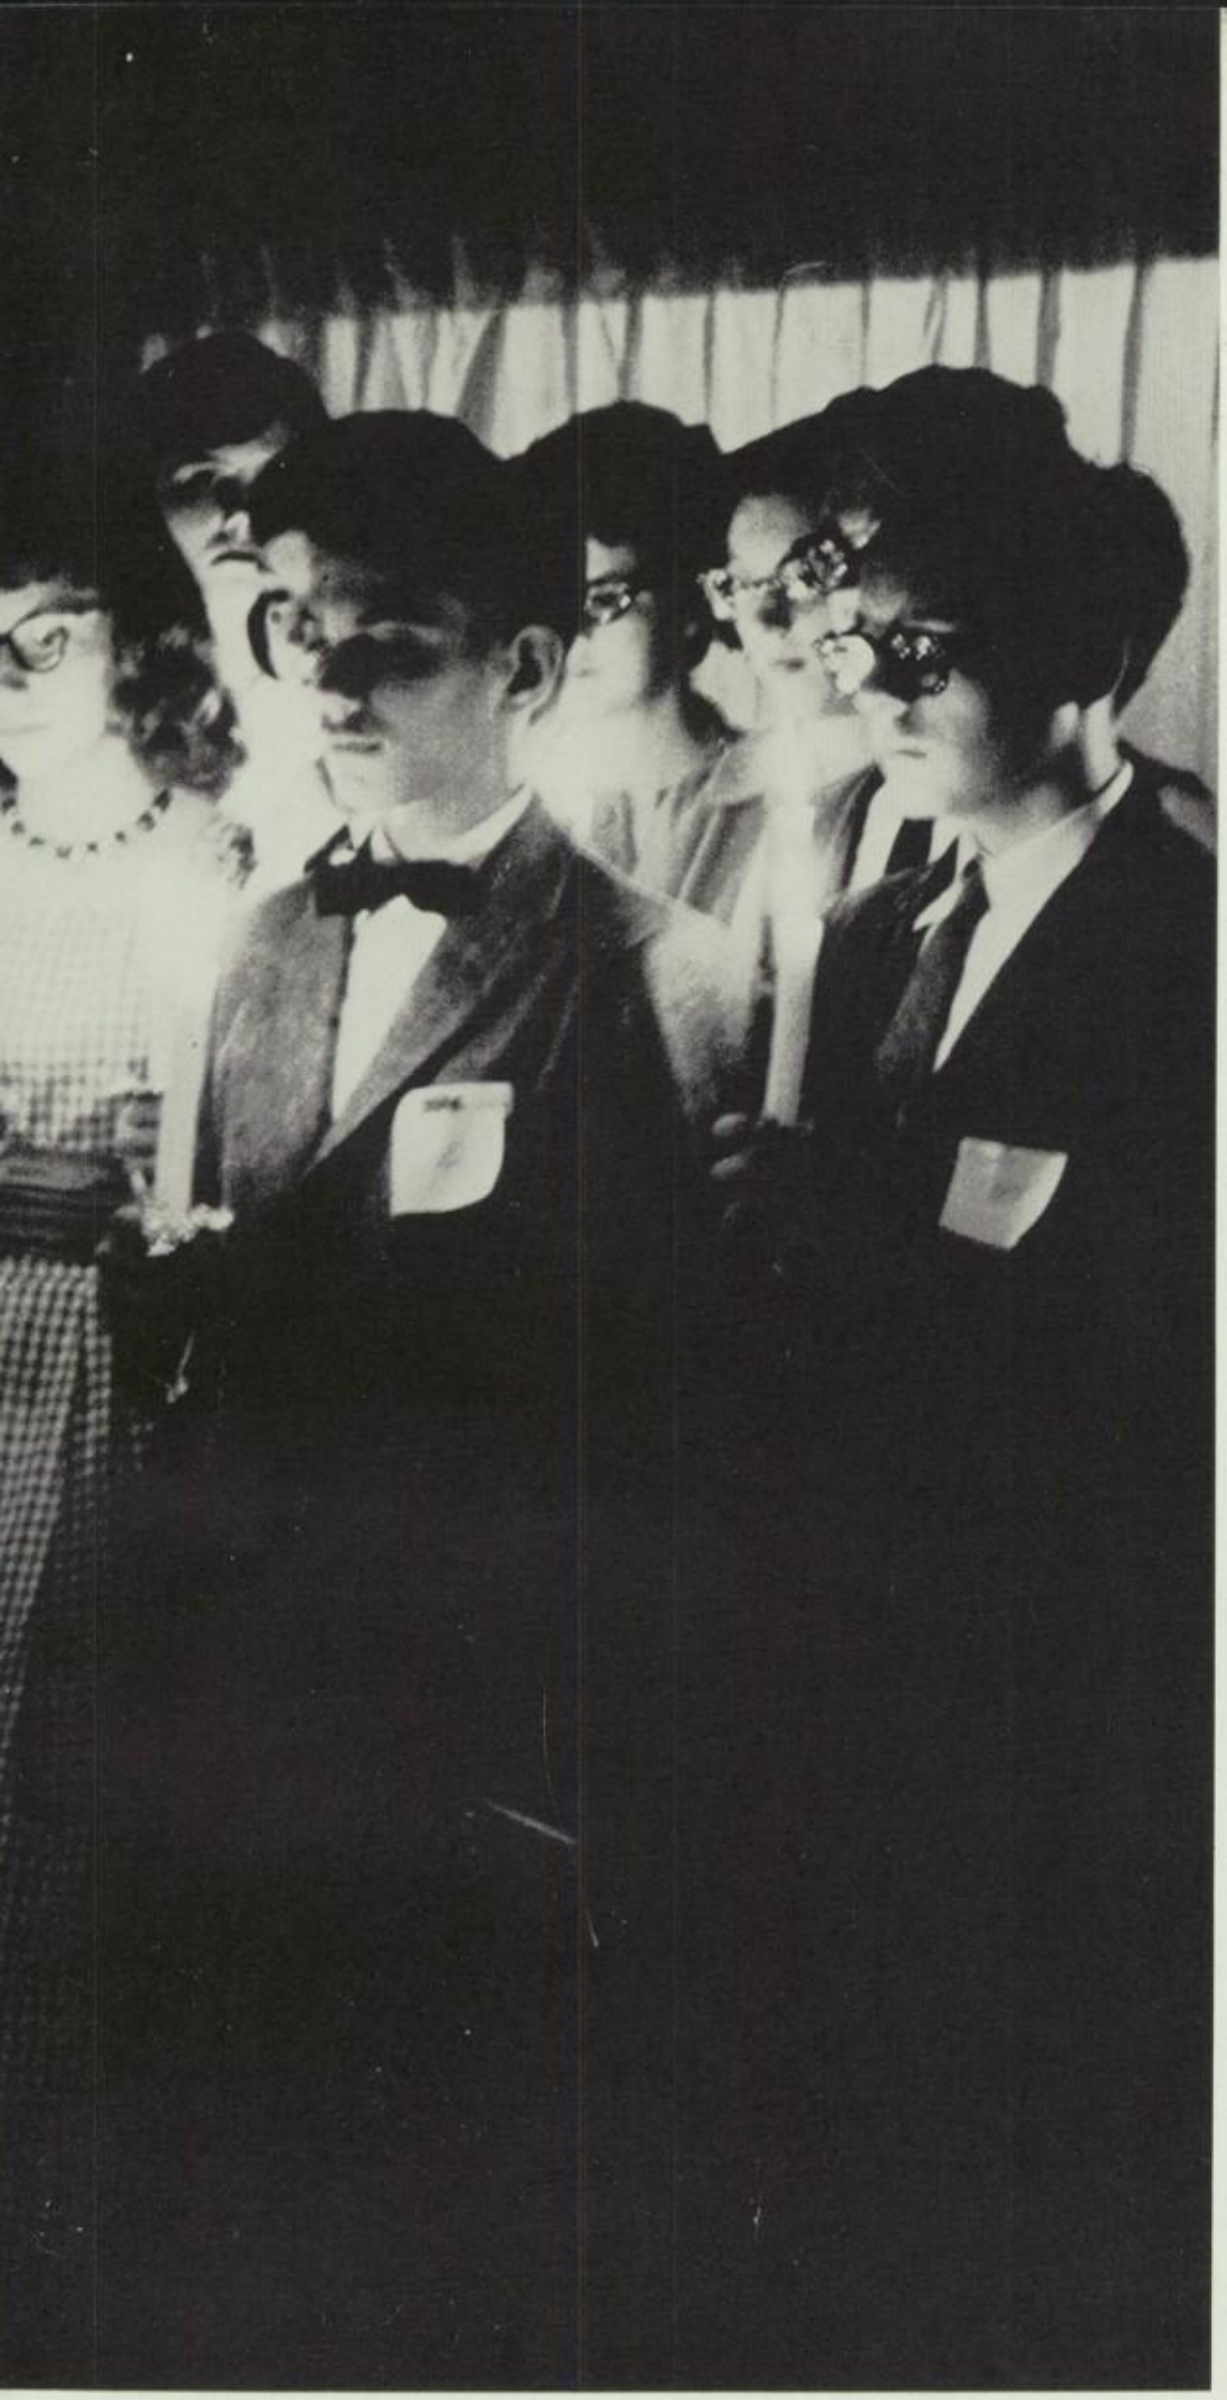
CLUBS and ORGANIZATIONS



At HHS you've got your choice,
Acting, painting, chess or voice;
Countless clubs that lie in wait
To let you know you really rate,
To comb your hair, to shine your shoes,
And mainly to collect your dues.
And if you don't dig one of these,
Just start your own club, if you please;
Take up archery, or bop,
Hold your meetings at the hop!
You can study Japanese,
Aristotle, Sophocles!
Just a word of caution, though,
Before you grab your hat and go:
Don't forget to play it cool—
Leave a little time for school!

Stuco Works, Plays, Has Dances

THE CLUB PRESIDENTS and cheerleaders become acquainted with Paul Erpelding at Ron Kessler's house.

A SOUVENIR OF SALT HAWK SPIRIT is displayed by student council members Richard Israel, Karen Singleton, and Portia Gates.

The elected leaders of the student body, President Ron Kessler and Vice-President Sara Sue Bowles, led an active and industrious Student Council through the 1958-59 year.

One of the two main projects of the council was sponsoring Paul Erpelding as foreign exchange student from Luxembourg and acquainting him with the school, students, and community. The second project was selling student movie tickets.

Other highlights of the Stuco program were the football and basketball queen assemblies and ceremonies, the nickle-noon dance program, class assemblies, and an exchange assembly. A Christmas assembly was presented in which Santa was Principal R. C. Guy, and popcorn balls were given as treats to the students.

Billfold-size honor roll cards were given to students on the semester honor roll. Second semester, Salthawk victory pennants and victory ribbons were sold at athletic events. Intramural basketball games were played and the champions played the faculty basketball team. Also, there was a game between the GAA volleyball champions and the women's faculty volleyball team.

The last project was the buying of a new American flag for the auditorium.

A TRADITIONAL CORONATION KISS is given "Skip" Runner, Sweetheart King, by Linda Woodall, club president. Looking on are Peggy Johnson, escort, and Mary Francis, crown bearer.

"IT WAS SO MUCH FUN!" smiles Peggy Johnson, Ideal Cheerleader, as she admires the basketball she won in the contest at the Dodge City Invitational Tournament.

Head Birds Prove Able Leaders

"QUIET! GENIUS AT WORK!" thinks Pat Pritchard, as he prepares a megaphone dunce cap for sponsor Mr. Del Knauer.

"QUIT SHAKING THE LADDER!" yells prexy Linda Woodall, known as "Woody," as she puts up pep posters.

Never losing their pepability, the Briny Birds held pep rallies, bonfires, assemblies, and in their gold and blue uniforms were seen forming victory arches and lively pep sections at the games. Led by six spirited cheerleaders and Sammy Salt Hawk, they cheered the Salt Hawk teams on to many victories. Game days were acknowledged by newspaper pep posters which were put in the halls to create enthusiasm and school spirit.

A vigilance committee called the "Goon Squad" consisting of 22 boys was appointed to help reserve seats for the Briny Birds. The traditional Sweetheart Hop, held Feb. 13, was highlighted by the crowning of the Sweetheart King who was elected by the student body. This year's officers were: Linda Woodall, president; Mary Beth McGuire, vice-president; Kathy White, secretary; and Jack King, treasurer. Mr. Del Knauer completed his seventh year as the club's sponsor.

"Will the board meeting please come to order . . ."

"You can do better than that, Woodall . . ."

Pledge 'Today for Tomorrow' As

WISHING TO JOIN KAYETTES for fun and service are Doris and Elaine Hildebrandt. Making their wishes come true are Julie Parrott and Nancy Thompson who place their names on the membership list.

ALL SMILES and just on time for a meeting are the Kayette officers, Vice-president Jan Wolf, Secretary Sue Brown, and Treasurer Linda Carey.

"WELCOME TO KAYETTES," says President Linda Lyman as she smiles at some new recruits.

DISCUSSING PLANS FOR THE FUTURE of Kayettes are club sponsors Miss Marie Stewart, Mrs. Dorothy Stamper, Miss Mary Petty, and Miss Emma Sage. Mrs. Stamper is head sponsor.

Getting ready for another year, Kayettes got things off to a good start by dividing the club into teams to further club participation. The teams were named for color and purpose. They were white for religion, red for publicity, blue for service, green for recreation, purple for program, and yellow for fine arts.

The "Apple of Your Eye," was the theme chosen for the Mother-Daughter tea held in December. The program showed how mothers and daughters of long ago compare with those of today.

Thanksgiving rolled around and the Kayettes were in charge of the "dress up" assembly. Miss Wanda May Vinson, state director of Kayettes, delivered the Thanksgiving message to a spellbound audience.

All the spirit and gaiety of the December season was reflected in the eyes of those present at the seventh annual Snowball. The theme, "Candyland," was carried out in red and white. The false ceiling of streamers set off the 600 pound white tree in the center of Convention Hall. Murals and giant candycanes decorated the walls and doorways while the Salina high school dance band charmed the guests with music.

Worthy projects carried on during the year were CARE, assisting the Children's Emergency Shelter Home, helping the custodians, and taking care of the bookstore.

Kayettes Strive for Leadership

"WELL, I REALLY DIDN'T MEAN IT THAT WAY," explains Ron Kessler, as smirks from the panel and giggles from the audience register doubt. Jack Grove, Jim Ellis, Sharon Hayes, Tom Martin, and Ron air views on dating in a Kayette meeting.

"ANOTHER ONE FINISHED AND READY TO BE PUT UP," says Karen McCue as she hands over a "Please Put Gum Here" poster. Posters were placed over drinking fountains to help the custodians during Kayettes Janitors' Week.

"THE NAME'S CLEO, CLEOPATRA THAT IS," explains Linda Novinger reclining on the table, to Mary Ann Smith. The skit was presented at the Mother-Daughter tea. The narrator at the speaker's stand is Patti Hagan.

ALL DRESSED UP and waiting in line for cider and doughnuts at the Mother-Daughter tea are the Kayettes and their "moms."

OHHH . . . Saturday morning.

MESSY . . . like spaghetti!

LULL before the storm.

Dance Project Is Annual Snowball

"ALL RIGHT YOU GUYS," exclaims Miss Marie Stewart, "who took my punch?" Serving punch and cookies by candelight at the Snowball are Miss Marie Stewart, Mrs. Dorothy Stamper, and Jean Phillips.

TRIMMING THE KAYETTE MITTEN TREE in second floor hall are Lynne Larson and Joanne Haldeman. The tree was put up to collect mittens for needy children at Christmas.

WITH STARS IN OUR EYES and love in our hearts we dance the night away in a fabulous "Candyland" at the 1958 Snowball. The Salina high school dance band provides the music.

Safety, Service 'Key' Words

Fruitcakes and watermelons marked the thirteenth year for Key Club International at Hutch High. The boys' organization, sponsored by math teacher Frank Kellenbarger and psychology teacher Edwin Jorgensen, held a fruitcake-selling drive at Christmas time to raise funds. Service projects of the club included aid to the Big Brothers and an anti-jay-walking campaign, for which the organization received a safety award from the local police force. Many of the active individuals from the club's restricted membership attended the annual Key Club Convention, held at Topeka in the spring.

KEY CLUBBER Terry Syler smiles over the clasped hands of Captain Bob Bruce of the Hutchinson Police Department and City Commissioner R. C. Woodard. Syler and three other members are receiving a safety award on behalf of the club. Other members are Bill Jennings, Jake Clark, and Steve Johnson.

"SPLAT!" Terry Syler wraps a ripe hunk of watermelon around club president Jake Clark's head as Jake offers another tempting morsel to Beatty Hunter. Beatty apparently isn't hungry.

LOADED DOWN WITH FOOD in their arms and love in their hearts, Jeanne Peterson, Donna Swafford, and Bernice Briggs are greeted at the door by FHA's "adopted" needy family.

PROOF! CURIOSITY KILLED THE WILL POWER of Marcia Harmon, Joan Fast, and Janis Bybee and they obey their temptations to sneak a peek.

Future Homemakers Sponsor Dance,

"OH! I SEE," says Nancy McQuilliam, "Then the butler took the poker . . ." Jan Russell, Mary Beth McGuire, Carole Chiles, Jo Mock, and Bonitta Gilley have a gab session at one of the board meetings.

"WHO PUT THE ICE DOWN HER BACK?" thinks Pat Graves as Sharon Hayes dances a prance in their pantomime, "Two-toned Shoes," at the annual Barnwarmer dance.

To promote a growing appreciation of joys and satisfactions of homemaking was the goal of FHA as they headed "Toward New Horizons." Sleepy-eyed members made plans for a year of fun at the come-as-you-are party which started activities. A barbecue was given in honor of the foreign exchange student by the board and their dates.

FHA played Santa to a needy family, made treats, and sang carols for the old folks home. Using a setting straight from the Wild West, the girls sponsored the annual Barnwarmer dance. In the spring they honored their mothers at a tea and presented the inspirational Easter assembly.

"Topeka or bust" was the slogan for Linda Nonken and Jan Russell, the first girls in the history of the HHS chapter to complete their requirements for the state degree.

The year's members ended the school term with a spring outing and looked toward the future as America's homemakers.

SPONSORS SPIKE THE CLUB with assistance—Mrs. Elizabeth Trosper and Miss Margaret Ramsdale help Linda Troxel, Gretchen Grove, and Judy Wyatt complete the requirements for their degrees.

Adopt Needy Family, Sell Candy

ARRANGING NOTES for a business meeting is Janice Russell, HHS chapter president. She was also elected District 3 president.

"HEY! THAT'S MY HAIR YOU'RE MESSING UP," says Diane Reynolds as Linda Nonken, Karen Brown, Julie Coyne, Kay Anderson, and Dee Freidenberger look on. Board members not pictured are Janet McIlrath, Carla White, and Roseanne Laird.

SPONSOR HAROLD PRY-OR finds that even riding herd on a band of high school boys has its lighter moments.

MAPPING OUT PROJECT STRA loose with a little oratory while boa Richard Israel, and Don Gatlin lend a Pryor, sponsor.

Hi-Y Is 'Bigger, Better' Club

Amateur politicians, professional popcorn vendors, and carefree silver polishers were among the unlikely types composing this year's Hi-Y. The "bigger and better" organization, sponsored by Harold Pryor and Deane Banker, engaged in such varied activities as shining Hutch High's trophies, aiding other clubs in manning the football concession stands, printing a student directory, and sending delegates to the annual Hi-Y Model Legislature at Topeka in the spring.

Regular Hi-Y meetings were usually slanted toward the immediate futures of members, featuring speakers from Armed Forces recruiting offices and various civilian occupations. Occasionally such off-beat programs as stereophonic sound demonstrations were scheduled.

This year Hi-Y presented a one-hundred dollar scholarship to a worthy senior boy for use at the college of his choice.

HI-Y BOYS take a look at persuasive pamphlets as officer from recruiting station extolls the advantages of Navy life.

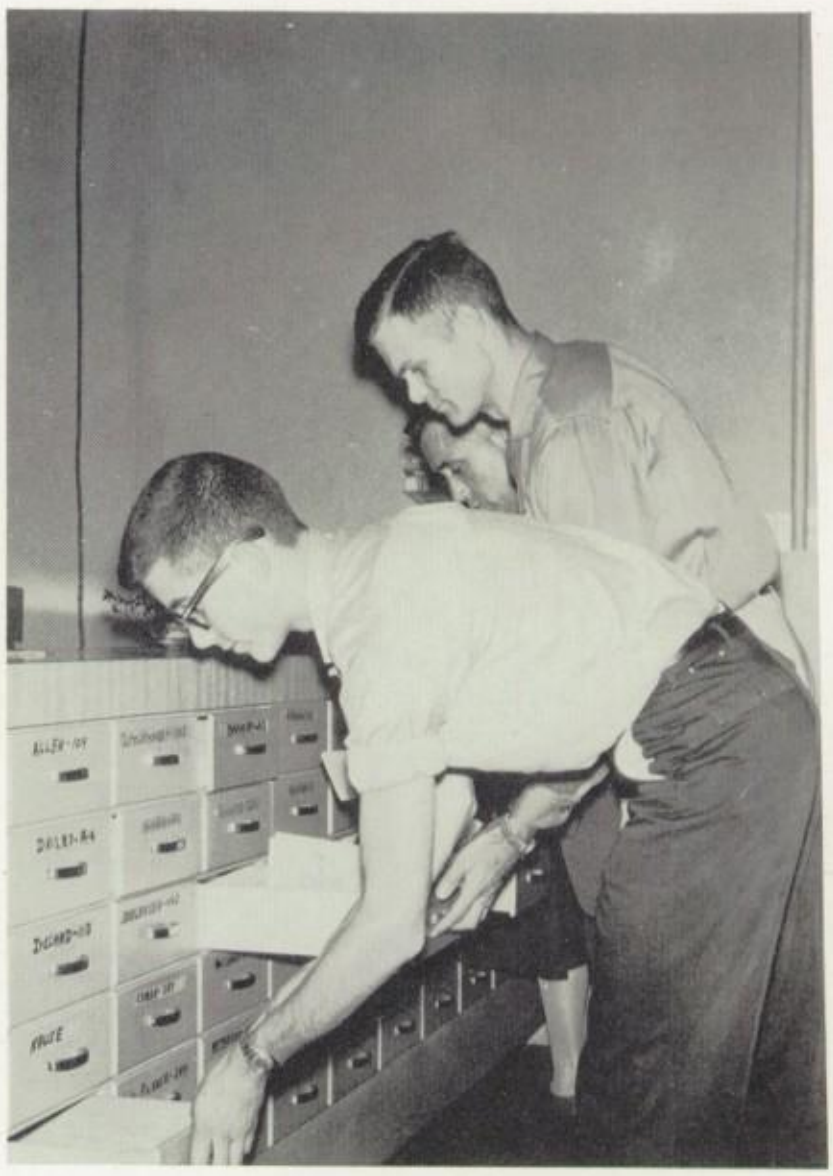
HI-HO SILVER! The Hi-Y dishrag gang makes a gay attack on the trophy cases. Participating in the annual project are Bob White, Harlan Wells, Jim Walker, and Bob Cox.

"TIME TO BREAK OUT THE BOTTLE," says Jim Walker, as he and fellow Hi-Y member Larry Morgan set to work in basement tie-painting factory. The bottle contains film-adherent, used in silk-screen processing.



DOING THEIR GOOD DEED FOR THE DAY, John Neal and Mr. Pryor distribute student directories in homeroom boxes. The free telephone and address book was greatly appreciated by students.

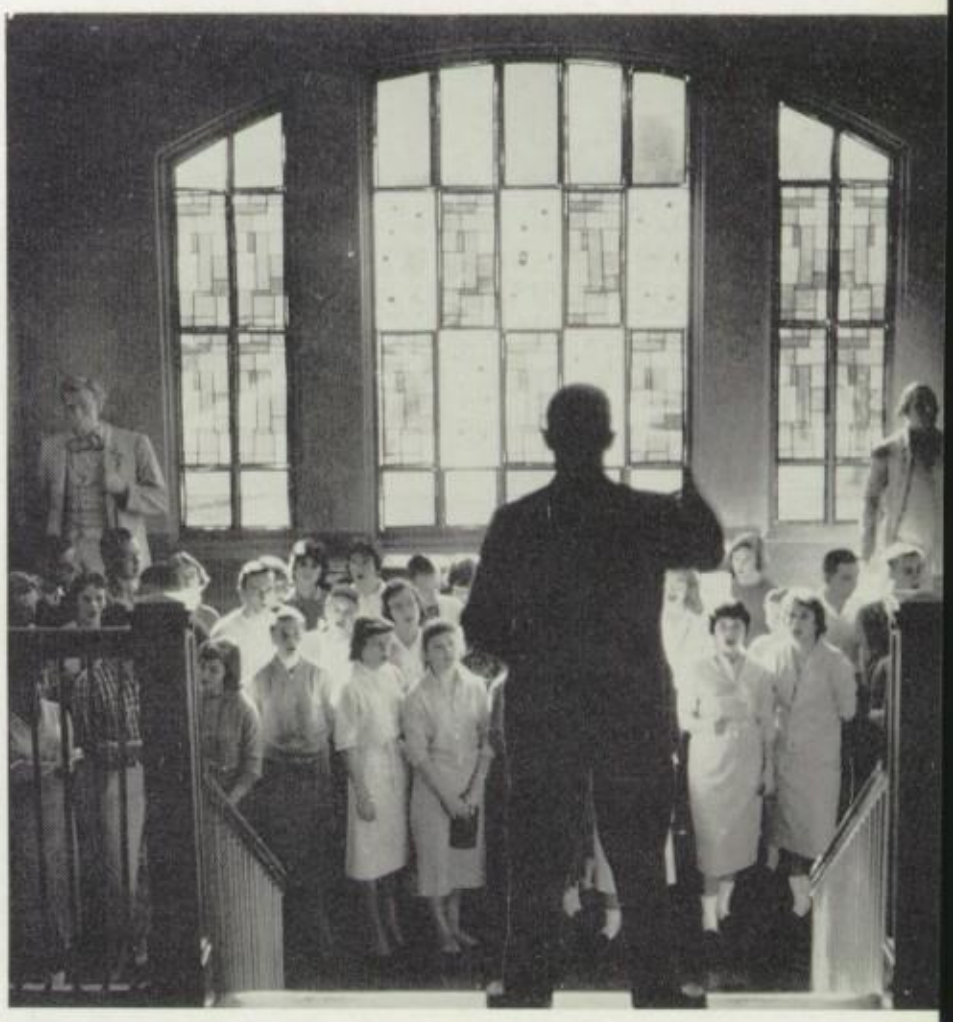
As Year of Music Comes to Close

ALWAYS READY, WILLING AND ABLE at all the basketball games to "make music," are the Salt Hawk band members and Director Lew Hiigel.



THERE'S A PAUSE in the day's studying as members of the a cappella choir, directed by Mr. John Cooper, sing carols in front of the Christmas decorated window.

CRIME DOESN'T PAY—Just ask Jerry Battey, Bill Haxton, or Mike Stevens. They paid for their evil deeds in the presentation of the one-act play, "Four Men on a Heath," directed by Lewis Ray.

PERRILL CLUB TODAY – Mrs. Gene Cramer, head sponsor, and Lewis Ray, vice-president of Perrill club, hang a poster made by Diane Mitchell to remind members of the meeting.

Best Plays

PERRILL CLUB PRESIDENT, SHARON HAYES, smiles with approval as she views the rehearsal of a one-act play which is given for the club members.

"I'M GOING TO GIVE UP EVERYTHING FOR MY ART," says Lois Janner to Bruce Davis, Valerie Ferris and Jim Enns. This one-act play "The Perfect Gentleman" was presented to the club members at a meeting Jan. 14, under the direction of Eva Carey and Carol Wells.

DISCUSSING THE FINANCIAL report before a board meeting are Secretary Eva Carey and Treasurer Diane Mitchell.

OBSERVING FROM THE BACKGROUND are sponsors Mrs. Gene Cramer and Mr. B. R. Patton, while Lewis Ray, Ronnie Strait, Dwight Curran, Sharon Hayes, Ann Jones, Pat Ross, and Diane Mitchell conduct a board meeting.

"WE DON'T USUALLY GIVE FREE SAMPLES, but we'll make an exception for you," Ronnie Strait and Dwight Curran tell Pat Ross and Dixie Hayes. They are members of the board selling candy as a money raising project.

Combine Talents of Dramatists

The faces of comedy and tragedy have always meant the theater, and at Hutchinson High School they symbolize Perrill club. Perrill club members are given an opportunity to become acquainted with all phases of play production.

Each year seniors are given a chance to direct a one-act play. This year Lewis Ray directed "Four Men on a Heath." Eva Carey and Carol Wells directed "The Perfect Gentleman."

Perrill club's biggest undertaking was the three-act play, "Storm Cellar." The club also helped with the All-School play, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

DOING AN IMPROMPTU PANTOMIME at a club meeting is Ray Van Natta portraying a "hoody" kindergartner. He is removed from the class by the teacher, Karen Baxter, while his fellow kindergartners, Judy Crouse and Alberta Oliver, suppress their giggles.

"I'M ELOISE AND I LIVE AT THE PLAZA," proclaims Eva Carey as she gives the reading "Eloise" at one of the meetings.

"WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME?" pleads Debbie, played by Sharon Hayes, of Tim, who is Jerry Wiens.

'Storm Cellar' Shelters Emotion

Perrill Club's play, "Storm Cellar," a three-act comedy, was directed by Mrs. Gene Cramer and presented Feb. 19.

Timothy Mack, played by Jerry Wiens, was recuperating from a mental breakdown and visited his Uncle William Torrence, Lewis Ray, and family. Uncle Mack, Jerry Riffel, also decided to visit his nephew, William.

Tim fell in love with Debbie Moore, Sharon Hayes, the crippled neighbor of the Torrences. Because there was no physical cause for Debbie's condition, Tim tried to help her remove the mental block. Eventually he was successful. Debbie walked again, Uncle Mack returned to his oil-soaked farm land, and everyone came out of his mental storm cellar of protection.

"WHAT A LOVELY SURPRISE!" exclaims Mrs. Cramer at a surprise birthday party given her by the cast. Ready for a piece of cake are Eva Carey, Ronnie Strait, Pat Pritchard, Dixie Hayes, Lynda Munson, Jerry Wiens, Diane Mitchell, and Sharon Hayes.

"UNCLE MACK, THE POLICE ARE COMING FOR TIM!" cries Eva Carey to Jerry Riffel.

"TAKE HIM AWAY! HE'S MAD!" screams Diane Mitchell as Pat Pritchard and Ronnie Strait struggle with Uncle Mack, Jerry Riffel.

GETTING THE STAGE READY for the play are stagehands Ray Van Natta, and Russell Eberhart, and Glen Haigler, manager of the light crew.

JIM ENNS, ONE OF THE FOUR BOYS on the make-up crew, puts the finishing touches of powder on Ray Van Natta for "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

THEY'RE ALL TRYING TO CATCH THE SAME RICH, young man. Mothers, Dixie Hayes and Sharon Elliott, want to marry their daughters, Patty Haston and Karen Bybee, to the most wanted bachelor, Henry Spoffard III.

JERRY RIFFEL, AS LORELEI'S FATHER, has his problems, too. At this moment, that very important trip to Europe is on the brink of being cancelled.

Blondes, Diamonds Gleam in Play

On Nov. 21 Lorelei and Dorothy proved in the All-School play that "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." The two took a trip to Europe to improve their minds. They also hoped to meet some interesting males—of course.

On ship Lorelei discovered that she had left all the money in New York. While she tried to rebuild the funds, romance bloomed between Henry Spoffard III and Lorelei. He gave her a diamond ring, which they had trouble getting back after Lorelei hocked it to pay the Paris hotel bill. All ended happily with both Lorelei and Dorothy engaged. The play was under the direction of Mrs. Gene Cramer.

INCLUDED IN THE PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN, is an appearance on television. Don Weage interviews Eva Carey, Gretchen Grove, Diane Mitchell, and Joy Johnson on KTVH's "Community Window."

DOROTHY AND LORELEI, Pat Ross and Joy Johnson, are finally on their way to Europe, but their money is in the safe of a New York hotel. Pat Pritchard, Sam in the play and financially unstable at the moment, is unable to help the girls out of their jam.

Senior Journalists Produce Book

DANCING IS ENJOYED by all who attend the Buzz-Allagaroo dance in the boys' gym the cold night of Dec. 12.

"But I sent it to the darkroom three weeks ago," wailed an Allagaroo staff member in search of a lost picture on deadline day. Co-existence with the photographers was only one of the problems encountered in the production of the fiftieth Allagaroo. Deadlines, lost negatives, and unidentified pictures plagued the staff.

Sixth hour wasn't all hard work. Willis Brooks was crowned 1959 Allagaroo King by Editor Linda Lyman. Willis attended the staff's annual spring banquet. Also a guest at the banquet was Ron Kessler, Student Council president, representing the student body to whom the book was dedicated. Other staff activities included a dance, and the spring signing party held in the boys' gym.

New features of the 200 page book were the six-page introduction, division page copy, and king attendant pages. The staff, photographers, and advisor, Mrs. Aylene Keown, worked together to produce in the 1959 Allagroo an answer to the question, "What is a high school?"

"HERE, SIGN MINE!" is the buzz overheard at the annual Allagaroo Signing Party.

THE SQUISH-SQUASH of the water seems to annoy Jack Grove as he makes his way to the food table at the journalism picnic held at the Wheatheart Inn.

CROPPING PICTURES and typing are a big part of yearbook work as proved by Jack Grove, Sarah Graber, Bill Jennings, Mrs. Aylene Keown, and Mary Calentine.

I AGREE or I disagree is heard often at Mrs. Keown's much-used desk, especially around deadline day.

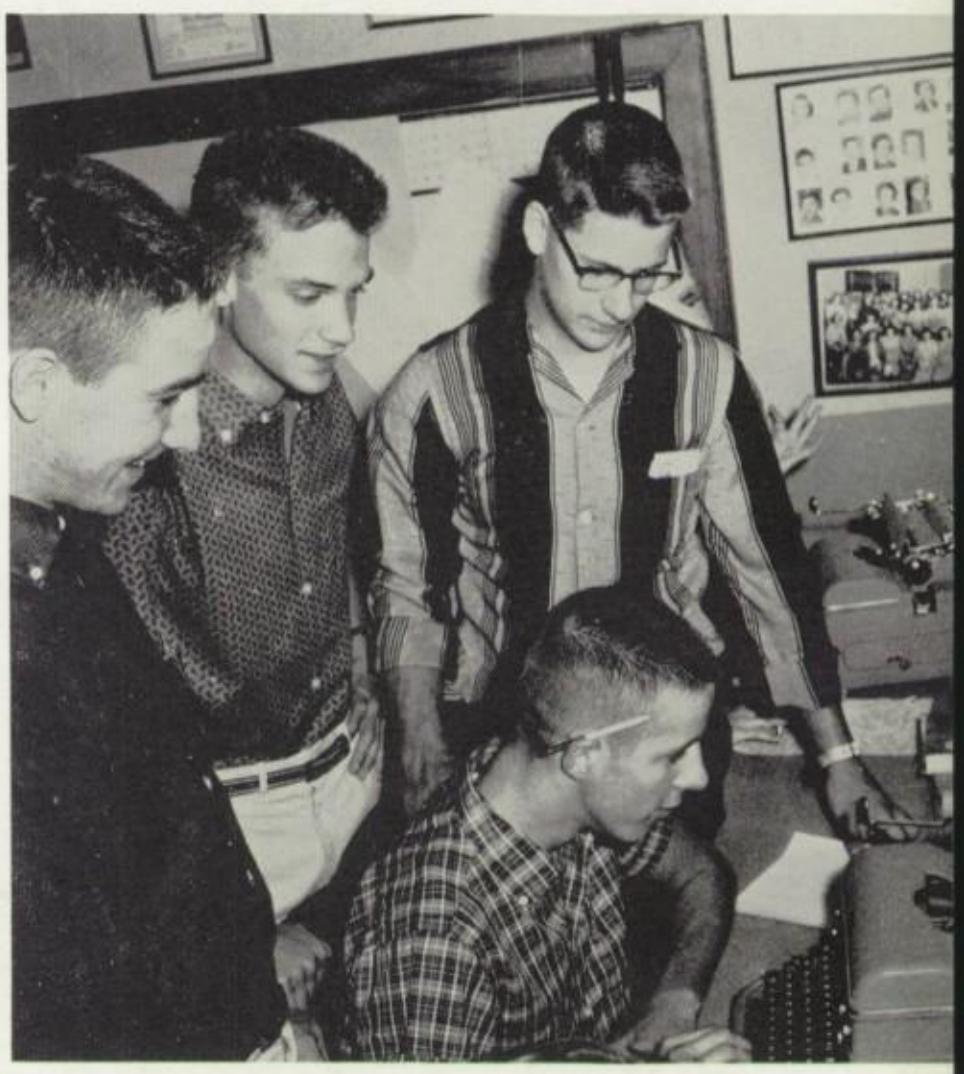
Buzz Has Beauty, Brains, Boys

INSPECTING PAPERS from other schools to find new ideas are Jo Ann Kessler, Susan Jones, and Marlene Colwell.

"DARN, ANOTHER MISTAKE," says sports staff member Gene Barnard to his self-appointed typing assistants, Stu Keown, Chuck Seibel, and Bob Kistler, who insist on heckling him about his typing.



"We Publish the News You Make" was the motto of the forty-one junior journalists. The '59 class, the largest ever, came forth with new ideas including two new name plates which were used throughout the year.

Long hours, tired fingers, and quick trips to sell ads and to contact the printer were an accepted part of meeting the weekly deadlines. Stepped up to 1400 copies per issue, the circulation set an all-time record for Buzz sales.

Cooperating with the senior journalists, the Buzz staff crowned Marlene Colwell as Miss Buzz at the Buzz-Allagaroo dance Dec. 12. Miss Buzz's attendants were Vicki Allen, Doris Ging, Susan Meschke, Jeny Morris, and Penny Nichols. Also featured in the floor show were the Buzz boys' chorus line, soloist Charlene Hill, and the junior girls' chorus line.

Aiming to inform quickly and to interest all readers, the newspaper "cubs" were awarded grades according to hours spent and inches written in production of the weekly Buzz.

PACKING THE STATION WAGON for one of the out-of-town tournaments are debaters Rick Andersen, Don Worster, Coach Patton, Bill Clegg, John Neal, Jerry Rogers, and Doug McIver.

With Bob Patton serving his first year as coach, the HHS debaters had a tournament record of 185 wins and 103 losses. They captured two third places, three second places, and three first place trophies.

"Resolved: that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of education," was the year's topic. Library work and research, combined with cramming sessions at Coach Patton's home, was the formula that helped win debates.

Debaters had fun along with their work. Among the parties was the get-acquainted party at the Nels Havens home. Mr. Patton played host for the annual Christmas gift exchange, and relaxing pizza parties after every tournament.

This year, for the first time, there was a class for sophomores and juniors. Some prep debaters were allowed to go to tournaments in order to gain experience in debating.

"THE KNIGHTS OF THE LONG TABLE"—Ken Gass, Bruce Collins, sponsor E. J. Metz, Bill Haxton, Ralph Drew, Larry Hutchinson, visitor Randy Shook, and Don Worster, president, match wits across the board.

"AND IF I TAKE YOU, YOU'LL TAKE ME"—Challenger Randy Shook ponders position as President Worster chuckles fiendishly.

'Knights' Prove Chivalry Lives

One of the newest clubs at HHS, organized last year under the sponsorship of English teacher E. J. Metz, the Knights Club was a point of assembly for Hutch High chess enthusiasts. Meetings at the Public Library were divided into individual contests as members matched wits across the chessboard.

The club, tenderly nicknamed the "concentration camp," hoped in the future to arrange meets with clubs in other schools, though chess clubs, until recently, have been few and far between in high school extracurricular society.

THE WARRIORS SQUARE OFF—Mr. Metz tackles Bruce Collins while Ralph Drew takes on Ken Gass. Combatants play a mean game, in spite of helpful advice from kibitzers Worster, Hutchinson, and Haxton.

PRESIDENT DON WORSTER glances up from board in reply to onlooker's comment.

Future Teachers Plan for Careers

Formed for students with a desire to become future teachers, the Willa Kate Lewis Future Teachers of America Association of HHS observed its third year.

November came and members sponsored a Hot Dog Hop. Profit from the Hop was "socked away" for a scholarship to be given to the outstanding senior member. A rummage sale was held in March, and proceeds were also used for the scholarship. Classroom visitations and serving as teachers' aides were other club activities.

Serving on the state FTA board were Sandra Gustafson and Kay Engler.

"ALL IN FAVOR, same sign," says FTA President Sandra Gustafson at a monthly meeting.

"HAVE A PIECE OF CAKE" comments Lynne Larson to Sandy Hall as Miss Ruth Evans, Esta Sue Burk, Joanne Haldeman, Linda Wetzel, Libby Delp, and Sue Dutton give sidelong glances at the procedure.

"WE MADE THE HEADLINES"—Examining a copy of the KFTA News Letter are board members Sandra Gustafson, Joanne Haldeman, Eva Carey, Lynne Larson, and Mrs. Ariel Perrill.

"THAT WILL BE FIFTEEN CENTS, PLEASE"—Miss Ruth Evans tells Mrs. Ariel Perrill at the Hot Dog Hop. Both are FTA sponsors.

Department Improves Curriculum

LOOKING OVER A WINNING THEME of the National Council of Teachers of English Association award are Linda Lyman, Miss Ely, Don Worster, and Bill Haxton. Linda and Bill are state winners and Don is a runner-up.

JULIUS CAESAR, SILAS MARNER, THE KING AND I, MACBETH, and CHAUCER were literature high lights in the English classes.

The good usage campaign and the study of grammar and spelling were integral parts of learning to write themes and research papers.

Mr. Del Knauer taught the new class, a one-semester class in Modern Novel, which was added this year to the English curriculum.

The coffee at the monthly meetings for the English teachers helped provide a relaxed atmosphere for discussion about English problems.

Miss Doris Ely was the chairman of the department.

A HIGH-FLYING GAA MEMBER, Judy Vanek, practices on the trampoline.

Busy board meetings, monthly programs, and plans for Joe's Tavern were headed by Dorothy Stevens, president of the Girls' Athletic Association. In the meetings of GAA, the soloist and pianist were chosen. A special Christmas program was narrated by carols sung by the members. In the spring, the board members modeled new fashions in a style show, and athletic awards were given to the girls who earned enough points taking part in volleyball, basketball, tennis, swimming, golf, bowling, and softball. Tournaments were held and all-star teams were selected in volleyball, bowling, and softball.

Kimonos, fans, and Japanese lanterns gaily decorated Tokyo Joe's Tavern with Dorothy Stevens as Mistress-of-Ceremonies. "Joe" was Vice-president Ann Jones, who danced as the proprietor of the Tavern. Joe's chorus line also danced, carrying colorful fans and parasols. GAA soloist, Charlotte Harris, appropriately closed the 1959 Tokyo Joe's Tavern singing "Sayonara."

Co-eds Show Sophies High Life

WHAT A DELIGHTFUL TASK beams Judy Deatz, Co-ed counselor president, as she counts coins from the Salk Hop. The proceeds from the dance go to the Teenagers Against Polio fund.

HIGH SCHOOL DETAILS are investigated by Karen Singleton, Ellen Hageman, and Janice Johnson at a coke party given for them by counselors Pat Graves and Julie Parrott.

Co-ed Counselors started the year by giving parties for their counselees, the sophomore girls. They promoted College Night and gave HHS a shot-in-the-arm by supporting the Salk vaccine program. On April 4 they sponsored the Salk Hop dance.

There was also a variety of programs. On Orientation day the Co-eds introduced the incoming sophomores to the building. Later in the year skits were planned for Liberty, Plaza, and Sherman Junior Highs to acquaint the freshmen with high school life.

The year was climaxed by a spring outing where the senior girls ended a year of fun and service.

PONDERING THE SITUATION at College Night are students absorbed in dreams of the future as the representative from K-State advises them about college life.

STRIKING A TYPICAL POSE is Mike Croft, the art club president.

OF COURSE the decorations for the mid-semester dance will be sharp because the officers and board members are doing them! Not pictured is Marlene Colwell.

Easel-Wielders Colorful Group

THE WIENER ROAST at the annual initiation picnic is one that will not soon be forgotten.

Determined to have an artistically talented club this year, Pallette and Brush Club limited its membership to students who took art, or had taken art sometime in high school. To end the drive with a climax, a party was given by the officers and board for the new members at a cabin in Carey Park.

The club's projects included painting the school Christmas window, a mid-semester dance, selling art materials at special prices, making posters for clubs, framing and hanging pictures for the teachers, and making jewelry to sell. The students visited KU's art department in the spring.

Sponsoring the club for the ninth year was Mr. Warren Brown.

PUTTING A STAINED GLASS EFFECT on the school's Christmas window are Ronnie Burch and Marlene Colwell.

WORKING BEHIND THE SCENE on the Christmas window are Charlene and Rita Harrington, and Rose Casey.

"HELP!" cries a new member as Julie Parrott, Clare Cameron, and Sarah Graber initiate her.

"PUT A LITTLE MORE FEELING into it," prompts Mr. Bobby Patton, play director.

READING FOR TRYOUTS for "Goodbye, My Fancy" are Lynda Munson, Bruce Collins, and Mike Croft.

Senior Finale 'Goodbye, My Fancy'

Rehearsals for the senior play, "Goodbye, My Fancy," began in late March. The play was given May 8, under the direction of Mr. Bobby Patton.

Successful Congresswoman, Agatha Reed, played by Nancy McQuilliam, returned to Good Hope College to receive an honorary degree. Agatha had been expelled from the college 20 years before because she had been caught climbing in the window of her dormitory at 6 a.m., after being with a professor, Jim Merrill, played by Mike Croft. Merrill had since then been made president of Good Hope College. He was still in love with Agatha and wanted to marry her.

Matt Cole, Alan Sorem, a Life photographer, came to cover the unusual Commencement weekend. Cole had known Agatha for six years and also had a bid in for her affection. With the help of Agatha's secretary, Woody, played by Eva Carey, Cole proved to Agatha that Jim was a "yes" man to the college trustees. When she realized that the Jim she remembered was only a memory, she accepted Matt's proposal.

"WOULD YOU REPEAT MY CUE?" says Eva Carey to Fred Hipp at tryouts.

FIRST REHEARSAL OF THE PLAY—Linda Lyman and Nancy McQuilliam work on their lines, while Reba Anderson peeks in the door.

Los Gatos Sponsor Chili Supper,

CONTEMPLATING THE CERVANTES DAY trip to KU are Los Gatos board members Eddie Martinez, Doris Ging, Mr. David Burns, Sue Schrock, Grace Ferguson, Libby Delp, and Bob McClure. Mary Ellen Navarro was absent when the picture was taken.

SIGNING A MEMBERSHIP CARD is the Los Gatos President, Sandy Hall.

ONE MORE TIME! coaxes the crowd as Cherie Jordan takes a a swing at the pinata during the annual Christmas pinata party.

"IT TASTES GOOD," says Eddie Martinez as he gives a toothpaste commercial at a club program.

CARAMBA! Inhibition takes to the wind as the enthusiastic "Cats" scramble and crawl for candy and trinkets.

Hacen Una Fiesta, Y Viajan A KU

MAKE IT HOT!—Dixie Hayes, Mary McGuire, Rosie Almanza, and Evangeline Cavillo are adding the spice to the chili for the annual chili supper.

IS THIS A PROPOSAL? Skip Runner and Kathy Vannaman are only paying the consequences for not telling the truth in a skit called, "La Verdad o Las Consecuencias." The master of ceremonies, Alan Sorem, supervises the operation.

Concocting mixtures for this year's Los Gatos activities were: "Head Cat," Sandy Hall; the club sponsor, David Burns; and the seven board members, Doris Ging, Libby Delp, Grace Ferguson, Bob McClure, Eddie Martinez, Mary Ellen Navarro, and Sue Schrock.

The club started things off with a bang by sponsoring a dance. To add to the Christmas festivities they threw their annual pinata party in the boys' gym. March was the date of the "Cats' " chili fiesta. After catching their breaths, they dashed off to KU to attend Cervantes day activities and took along a contribution to the day's program.

Los Gatos helped sponsor a refugee family that had fled from Franco-controlled Spain to France. A clothing drive was held to get clothes for the family.

Business, Pleasure Mix Nicely

Balancing, depositing, writing checks, and just generally keeping the financial situation in hand, the student bookkeepers of Hutch High completed another year in charge of the school treasury, under the solicitous eye of business teacher Walter Rinehart, sponsor of the group.

The bookkeepers didn't spend the whole year running their fingers through the long green, however. The accounting was studded with dinners, Salt Hawk pin sales, and a dance held early in the year.

"Instruction over production" could have been the motto of the thirteen vocational printing boys and Mr. Walter E. Knox, instructor.

Training was given in hand, machine, and stereotype composition; press work; lithography; bindery; and use of an electric folder, cutter, and stapler.

The students spent the four-hour mornings printing school forms, athletic programs, tickets, and the weekly four-page school newspaper, The Buzz.

Fun was mixed with work. The lucky "thirteen" entered a "dog-catcher" float in the homecoming parade and took a field trip in the spring.

Forming a part of the foundation of an international organization, this year's Junior Red Cross carried on the humanitarian principle of helping others. Sponsored by Mrs. Elizabeth Trosper and Mrs. Esther Ogle, the club consisted of 44 students, one representing each home room.

One of the most active of Hutch High's organizations, the Red Cross had a float in the annual Christmas parade, placed United Nations decorations in a downtown store window, and contributed to the School Chest, which aids foreign schools. On Valentine's Day, members created colorful place mats and candy cups for patients at Grace Hospital.

The final project of the club, one enjoyed by fellow students, was the anual ice cream social, featuring homemade ice cream and cake.

The Future Business Leaders of America formed a chapter in HHS during 1958-'59. The purpose of FBLA was to develop competent leadership and good character, to create an interest and an understanding of business occupations, and to encourage cooperative participation in school activities by promoting school loyalty.

In trying to fulfill this purpose, FBLA highlighted their first year with picnics, a trip to Emporia, and club projects. To keep members on their toes, a system of earning points was set up; the recipient being delegated to the state convention.

SPORTS

When the football season started,
I was waitin' at the gate,
I hollered "Coach, you lemme in now,
'Cause I'm gonna make state!"
I was ready, boy—
Star halfback, easy.
Maybe next year. . . .
When the court-men started dribblin',
I was bangin' on the door,
I said, "Chamberlain, move over,
Watch me scorch that hardwood floor!"
Fancy footwork, man—
Way out there.
Maybe next year. . . .
When the track squad started sprintin',
And the gate was swingin' shut,
I hollered "Aw, c'mon guys,
So I'm only eight, so what!"
They never heard of child prodigies—
Oh, well.
Maybe next year. . . .

Hefty Hawks Train, Work Hard

Many fine football teams have been fielded by HHS; but few have battled such a dynasty of football powerhouses and ended the season Ark Valley Champions and rated one of the best teams in Kansas.

Pre-season hopes were high. Coach "Irish" Ireland felt his team had the experience to be one of Hutchinson's best.

SQUAD FULFILLS EXPECTATIONS

With many questions in the air, Hutchinson traveled to Salina for their first grid test. All doubts disappeared when Hutch outhit and out-ran the heavier Mustangs for a 21-6 victory. Scouts of future foes were shown a lightning fast offense spearheaded by halfback Jim Ellis and fullback Willis Brooks.

El Dorado fell next to the mighty Irishmen. Again, hitting with rapier like speed, Hutch led 14-0 within a few minutes of play. El Dorado went home carrying a 28-6 defeat.

The Salt Hawks then traveled to Wichita North. They again struck with dynamic force and were ahead by two touchdowns within minutes. Linemen Dennis Sperling, Stu Keown, Skip Runner, and Roger Witham set a powerful defense that held the Redskins in their own territory most of the game. Hutch won 31-13 and broke an 11-year jinx.

HIGH FLYING HAWKS TASTE DEFEAT

Coach Ireland's eleven were now rated third in the state; but they still had to do battle with their Valley rivals who had been proving the AVL was one of the strongest conferences in Kansas.

Winfield came to Hutchinson fired up to topple the Hawks. They hit first and hard; Hutch was not up to par and went down to disappointing defeat, 26-13.

After Winfield's sound whipping, Hutch went to Wichita Kapaun to try to re-capture the finessé of the team which had scalped North. The Hawks fought to a 7-7 half time score with a team of college caliber. After a hard contested second half, Kapaun came out on top 21-14.

HAWKS FIRED UP FOR HOMECOMING

Homecoming and the revenge of two straight defeats were enough for the spirited Salt Hawks to literally run over the powerful Ark City Bulldogs. Spectacular running by Armand Baughman and Ken Cotton and defensive play by Jack King, Jack Grove, Kirk Voth, and Wes Watkins showed that Hutch still wanted the Valley title. Favored Ark City left with a 26-18 defeat.

Front Row: B. Jennings, K. Voth, J. King, J. Grove, W. Brooks, D. Sperling, A. Baughman, and F. Stanfield. Middle Row: C. Schmidler, S. Shaffer, M. McDonald, W. Watkins, R. Showalter, A. For 1st Place Title in Valley

After soundly beating the powerful Great Bend Panthers 21-0 in a non-league contest, the Hawks were now ready for the two teams that stood between them and the championship, Wellington and Newton.

When the Irishmen and Wellington met, mighty defensive battle ensued. The Crusaders scored in the second half to go ahead. Ireland then took Fred Stanfield off the sick list and placed him at the helm. Stanfield led Hutch to two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and a 14-6 victory.

HAWKS FIGHT FOR FIRST

All Hutch had to do now in order to bring home the first Valley championship in ten years was defeat Newton. Newton met Hutchinson ready to play the part of the spoiler. After a fierce battle the game ended in a 13-13 deadlock.

Although Hutchinson had to be satisfied with just one-third of the coveted Valley crown, the '58 Hawks will not soon be forgotten. They shared in the AVL Championship for the first time since 1945; they finished the season rated eighth in the AP poll; and several boys were mentioned on all-state teams. Hutchinson may have teams that win more games, or are larger, but few will have the spirit of the 1958 Salt Hawks.

SPIRITED REBOUNDING by Jack King and Larry Soper makes the difference in this victory over Wellington.

Take Third in Regional Tourney

For the Salt Hawk basketball team 1958-'59 was the rebound season. Although four lettermen returned, only two were returning starters and only one was over six-feet tall.

Determination made up for height and experience. The fury the Hawks showed in the first few games surprised all of their fans and future opponents.

START SEASON WITH THRILLERS

The Hawks traveled to Wichita West for the season opener. The West Pioneers were highly favored over Hutch. After a closely contested defensive battle the Hawks won in an overtime, 34-32.

The Salt Hawks' next opponent was Wellington. After another cutthroat battle, Hutch came out on top by a narrow margin, 46-43.

The fearful Ark City Bulldogs fell next to Coach Joe Krafels' quintet. After a thriller the final score was 46-44.

Floor play by Kirk Voth was outstanding in the first three victories.

OPPONENTS TOUGHEN

Two undefeated state powers who met Jan. 6 were the Hutchinson Salt Hawks and the Wichita Blue Aces. The Aces used a new zone defense and easily defeated the Hawks, 63-44.

El Dorado used the same defense and handed the Hawks their first Valley loss, 47-43.

The Dodge City Tournament of Champions Jan. 15, 16, 17, also proved to be a stumbling block for Hutchinson. After losing to Dodge City in the first round, the Hawks beat Coffeyville, 46,43, but the final round matched the Hawks against their old foe, Wichita East. This time East won, 59-29, and the Hawks finished sixth in the tournament.

RETURN TO WIN COLUMN

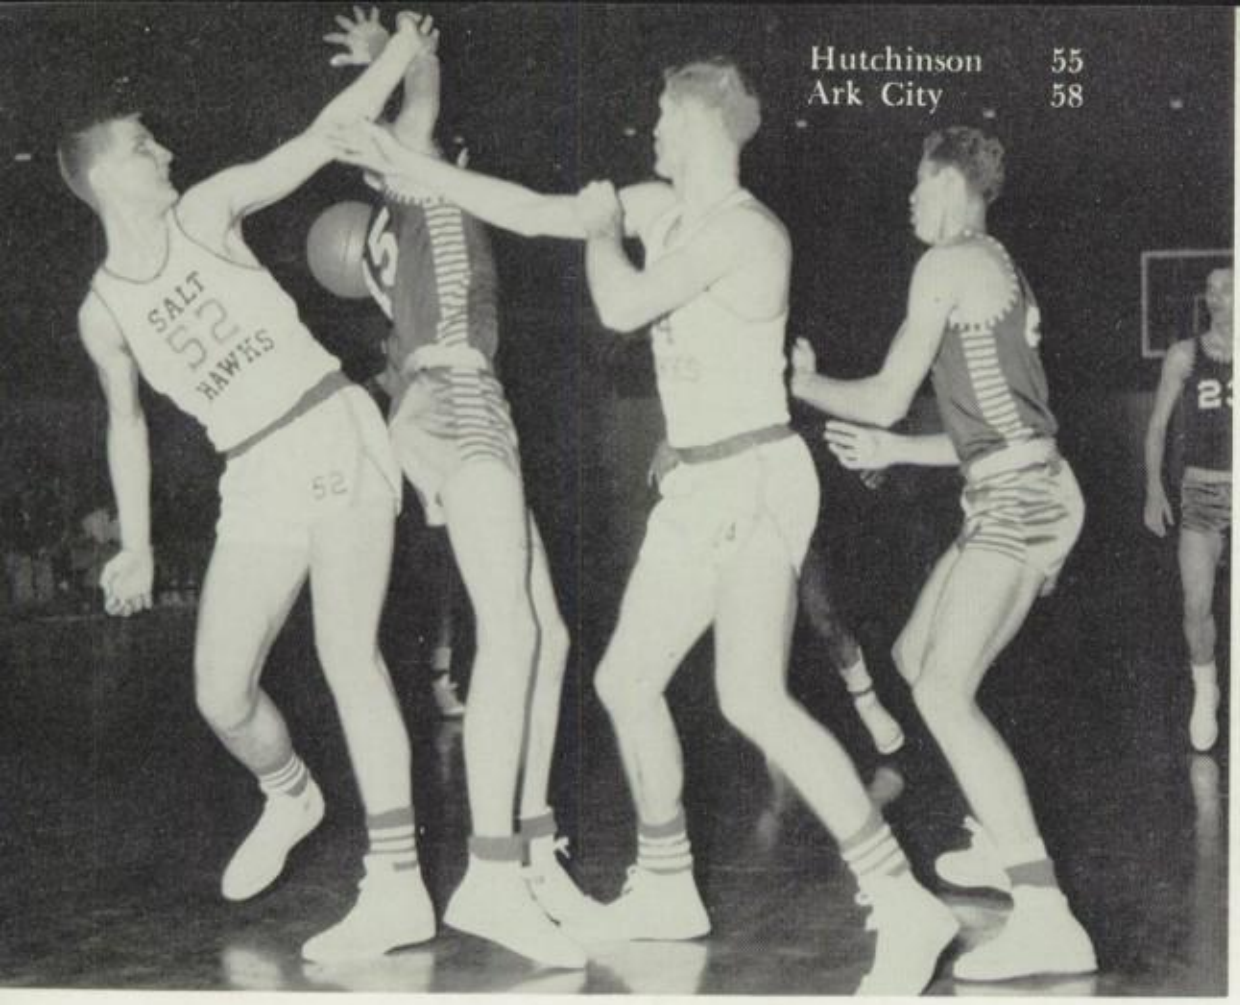
Hutch solved the zone defense that their opponents were using by defeating Winfield, Jan. 23, in Sports Arena.

Next the Hawks edged Southeast, 43-41.

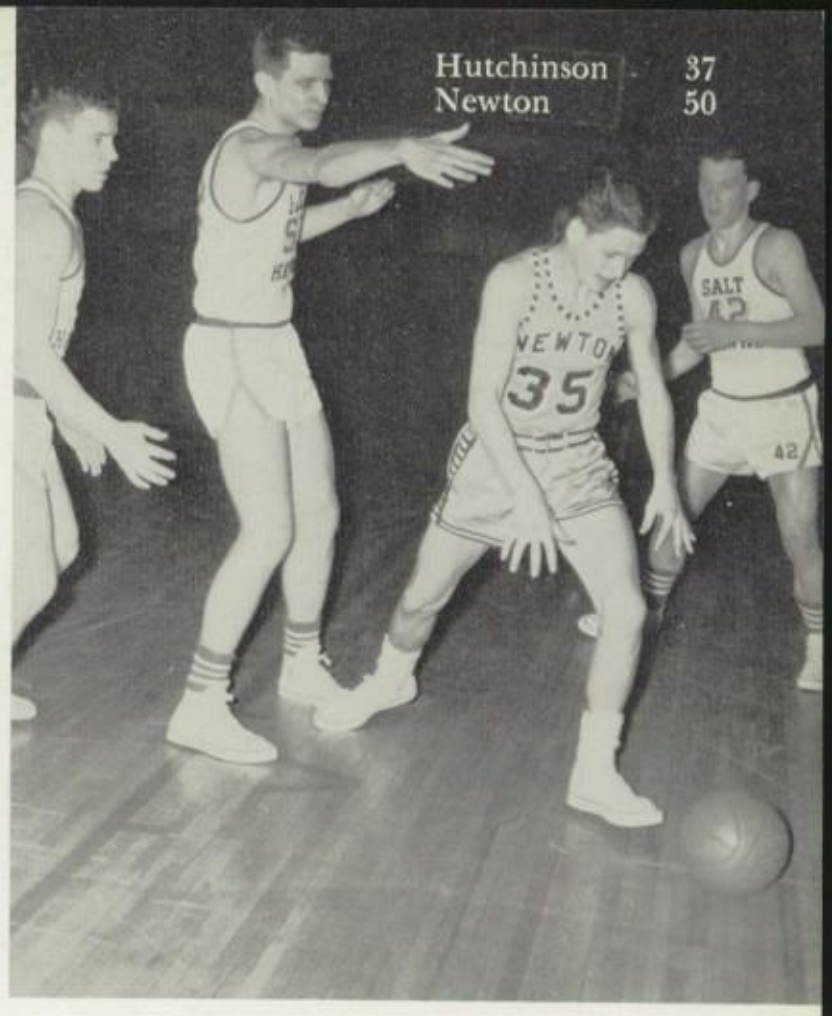
The next visit was Lindley Hall in Newton, where hopes were high to topple the kingpin of the AVL. A disappointing loss was suffered as the Newton Railroaders derailed Hutchinson, 53-43.

Seeking revenge the Salt Hawks easily handled their next three opponents by defeating Great Bend, Wellington, and Wichita North. The only loss to mar Hutchinson's record during this rampage was Ark City, 58-55

Dodge City, another old foe, was met in the Arena on Feb. 17. This time Dodge City went home carrying a 50-43 defeat.



TAKE THAT! Jack King and Larry Soper mix it up with an Ark City player.



HEX! A Newton player chases an elusive ball while surrounded by hungrey Salt Hawks Freddie Stanfield, Larry Soper, and Kirk Voth.

Finish Season With 12-9 Record

Sparking the play in these victories were Willis Brooks, Jack King, Larry Soper, and Jim Ellis. All of these boys frequently scored in double columns during the year.

TROUBLE IN SEASON CLOSE

After edging El Dorado to revenge an early loss, Hutchinson was again ready to meet Newton, but this time at Hutchinson. The Railroaders were too much for the Hawks who were soundly defeated, 50-37.

To finish with an undisputed second place in the final AVL standings, all Hutch had to do was defeat the Winfield Vikings. But after a trip to Winfield, the Hawks had to settle for a three-way tie for second after Winfield beat them, 49-47.

The team drew a bye the first round of the regional tournament, March 4, 5, 6, at Great Bend. They met Liberal in the semi-finals and were beaten by a tall, experienced team, 54-42.

Garden City was defeated at their own ball-control game, 23-17, and Hutchinson won third place in the regionals.

HONOR TEAMMATES

The squad elected Jim Ellis and Kirk Voth co-captains for the season. Kirk Voth was voted the Most Inspirational Player. The most improved Player for 1958-'59 was Larry Soper.

Finishing with a 12-9 record and second place in the Ark Valley in a rebound year, were the accomplishments for Coach Joe Krafels and his crew of roundballers.

HOW'S THAT? asks "Irish" Ireland as Coaches Charles Lyons and "Woody" Kramer survey his measuring operation.

Tough Competition, Good Season

UP AND OVER—Letterman Ray Showalter strains to clear the bar.

HOLDING A CONFERENCE with Coach "Woody" Kramer are returning lettermen Gerald Darnell, Jack Calentine, Freddy Stanfield, Willis Brooks, Gene Barnard, Mike Armour, Jack King, Bill Jennings, and Tom Westfall.

Almost ninety boys reported for track practice March 1. Even with the cold weather, excellent times were turned in.

The return of ten lettermen strengthened the 1959 track squad. The returning letter winners were sprinters Bill Jennings, Willis Brooks, and Mike Armour; distance runners Gene Barnard, Gerald Darnell, Jack Calentine, Alvin Casey, and Jack King. Returning in field events were Ray Showalter, Tom Westfall, and Freddy Stanfield.

But with the return of these boys, graduation hurt the '59 squad with the loss of Charles Jennings, Bill Ward, Tom Armour, Bob Gough, Larry McCue, Irl Finnell, Bob Hageman, Forest Tennant, and Larry White.

In 1958 Hutchinson won the University of Kansas medley relay title and broke the state record. On this team were Charles Jennings, Bill Jennings, Larry McCue, and Willis Brooks.

One of the largest track squads in the history of HHS and "Woody" Kramer, head track coach, looked forward to a good '59 track season.

READY AND SET TO GO are sophomores Jim Reed, Bruce Ferris, Beatty Hunter, and Jack Summers. Standing are Bill Atkinson, Steve Stout, and Joe Newlon.

THE 1959 TENNIS SQUAD—Front Row: C. Olson, V. Thompson, J. Davis, B. Kistler, R. Glotta, and B. Henson. Back Row: G. Long, V. Sisk, J. Stockton, H. Echols, J. Martens, D. Brightenburg, G. Martens, L. Kingsley, and Coach Don Newell.

Racket Men Face Tough Schedule

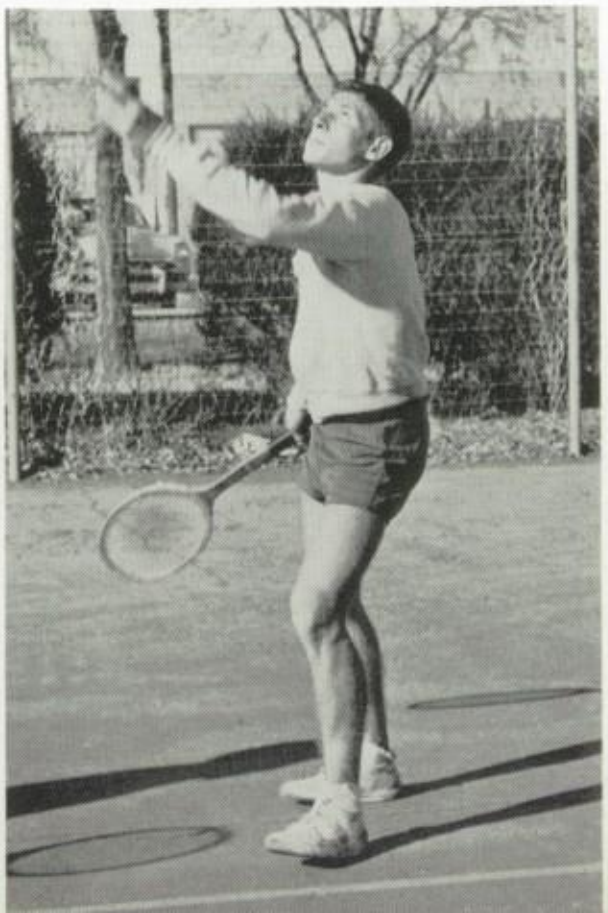
With three returning lettermen, Jon Davis, Ron Glotta, and Bob Kistler, the '59 tennis squad expected a good year. Davis and Glotta won the '58 regional championship in doubles and placed fourth in the state. Coach Don Newell had the largest and toughest schedule the "racketmen" had ever faced.

Beginning with McPherson, March 25, the squad played eleven dual matches with such schools as Manhattan, Topeka, and Salina. They finished their season with the state tournament at Wichita University, May 15. The Hutch Invitational Tournament was held April 24.

Missed this year were the '58 graduating lettermen, Don Thompson, Jim Bond, Larry Cole, and Craig McGowen. Cole and McGowen placed second in doubles at last year's regionals.

BOB KISTLER, junior letterman, practices his backhand.

RON GLOTTA, senior letterman, gets ready to serve.



JON DAVIS, senior letterman, drives with his forehand.

State	1

"ARE THERE ANY QUESTIONS?" asks Golf Coach Max Hamilton of his lettermen, David Bowman, Galen Rathbun, and Alan Hamilton. Bowman and Hamilton were members of the 1958 state champion 4-man team.

The 1959 golf squad had big shoes to fill for the '58 4-man team won the state title and placed first in eight of ten regular tournaments. The 2-man team also placed close to the top in all of the tournaments entered.

Three 1958 graduating lettermen were Bob Walter, Barry Brooks, and Jim Moore. Walter was state medalist and Moore placed third in the state held at the Prairie Dunes Country Club.

Golf Coach Max Hamilton had the help of three returning lettermen to fill the championship shoes. Alan Hamilton, Galen Rathbun, and David Bowman made up for the loss of golfers by graduation. Hamilton and Bowman were members of the '58 state champion 4-man squad.

Besides the three lettermen, Coach Hamilton depended heavily on other squad candidates. Sophomores Jim Hardy and Dean Wingert, juniors Rusty Hilst and Bill McDonald were outstanding in early season rounds.

SOMETHING TO LIVE UP TO are the regional and state trophies the golf squad won in 1958.

HHS Athletes Promote Activities,

"SINK IT, LARRY!" yells the H-Club cheering section at the homecoming basketball game as Hawk center Larry Soper shoots a free throw.

Crowns, chorus lines, and concession stands, kept the lettermen's club busy in '59.

After a victorious homecoming game, students celebrated by going to the H-Club homecoming dance. H-Club President Willis Brooks crowned Jan Wolf football queen during the floor show.

During the Christmas season, the H-Club chorus line was getting ready for its debut at the Snowball. After a successful debut, the chorus line went on to other glories in the Christmas and senior Assemblies.

To pay for all this fun, H-Clubbers were seen working in the concession stands at football games and track meets.

Cooperation was the key word, and fun was the key product of the '59 H-Club.

WAITING FOR THE PRESIDENT—Officers of H-Club are Secretary Dennis Sperling, Program Chairman Jack Grove, Vice-President Jack King, and Treasurer Kirk Voth.

FACULTY and ADMINISTRATION

Now cast a glance
At the teachers here;
Pick out the ones
You've had this year.
Just scan the pan
Of every one—
You may have worked,
But you had fun.
And now the brain mill's
Almost through
Don't kid yourself—
You'll miss 'em, too.

Office Aids Faculty, Students

Principal R. C. Guy

"I am looking forward to being in the new building, of course. We all like to live in new houses," laughed Principal R. C. Guy. Then he grew serious. "To me, though, what is to be inside is what really matters. I'm interested in the facilities that will be provided for the students' usage."

Mr. Guy feels that we must "educate everyone," because statistics show that for "every scientist we produce, ten people with semi-technical skills are needed to support him and his work. If we are fighting a battle for survival, as many people think we are, we need the very best training for every boy and girl."

Even though the new school won't have any of the "old brick tradition," Mr. Guy doesn't anticipate any lag in school spirit.

Top administrator of HHS for nine years, Mr. Guy doesn't recall "anything really startling" in his career. Increased graduation requirements, six classroom periods instead of five, and a new emphasis on guidance programs have all been established during his tenure of office.

"I put my heart and soul into my work; my work being the students," he says. "I am always interested in their activities, and very proud of their accomplishments."

Mike - (You ol Kevin Rat!)

We've got to get in some more good fishing this summer. I bet it ought to really be good.

I hope that we can get your boat up to Kanap again. The only trouble is, I hope it doesn't get too rough up there. I was really scared that day we were out there riding the whitecaps on the seats of our pants..

Keep up the good work + don't get in too much trouble next year in Jerco.

All closed the halls through which we strode;
